13 Neuschwanstein / Linderhof

Come with us to the Southwest of Bavaria to see the most visited castle of our country: Neuschwanstein, perched high up on a mountain in the beautiful landscape of the Alps. „Mad“King Ludwig II realized this architectural dream and it became world famous.

The majestic facade conceals an unbelievable splendor of the interior: very precious furniture, sumptuous appointments and masterly craftsmanship. A special castle guide will accompany you through Neuschwanstein and explanations are provided in 16 different languages. Do not miss the opportunity for a private stroll in the marvelous surroundings and capture this impressive scenery.

The journey will continue to gorgeous Linderhof Palace, which also belongs to King Ludwigs II Royal Bavarian Castles. This is the only one he lived to see completed. The Palace, although much smaller than Neuschwanstein, also displays a unique Neo-Rococo splendor and reflects King Ludwigs fascination of the French Ancient Régime. In 1867 he visited the palace of Versailles and this impression largely influenced the style of the construction and decoration. Enjoy an indoor visit with a castle guide.

There will also be time to see the beautiful surrounding ornamental gardens.

29 500 Years Reformation – Wartburg Castle / The Legacy Of Martin Luther

(A memorable destination - never shown before in a daily tour program in Germany!!!)

Join us to visit one of the most famous Luther sites:

The Wartburg Castle (UNESCO World Heritage Site)

There, during his time as a refugee, Martin Luther translated the New Testament of the Bible into German.

Follow us on a visit through this historic site where the exceptional importance of Luther's legacy comes once again alive. Recall the most important stages of his life. "Here I stand I can do no other".

On 31st of October 1517 Martin Luther nailed his 95 Thesis to the church door in Wittenberg. The date is considered as the beginning of the Reformation 500 years ago. What had initially been intended as a critical dispute against the selling of indulgences by the Roman papacy should develop to a movement which totally changed the society and had an incredible influence on the progress of human Knowledge and recognition, on language, education and culture, and finally on politics and economy.

A Castle Eltz

Join this tour in Frankfurt and come with us to the world famous 850 years old Castle ELTZ, one of the most beautiful and best-preserved castles in Germany, perched high up on a steep rock amidst. A romantic setting surrounded by unspoiled landscape, inviting and majestic at the same time.

Castle Eltz has been the family home of the Lords and Counts of Eltz for more than thirty generations.

The inside of the castle is unique: the living and sleeping areas, the armory and Knights' hall, the hunting room and kitchen – all have been well preserved and largely furnished with original contents.

Owing to clever diplomacy, Castle Eltz has survived unharmed for centuries, making it one of the few European Castles to have escaped destruction.

The vault of the castle contains one of Europe's foremost treasure chambers with its renowned collection of medieval goldsmith's work as well as many other precious objects d'art .

On our way back to Frankfurt we will invite you to a dinner in a lovely restaurant right by the riverbanks of the Rhine Valley.

Accompanied by a guide we clamber down through the 80 m access gallery into the colorful world of artful stalactites and stalagmites. Marvel at stone curtains draping from the rock ceiling and be amazed by the largest interconnected cave system in German (6,5 km in total) visited by more than 40 million visitors from all over the world.

We will continue our journey to Castle Greifenstein (built 1160), one of the oldest feudal fortresses in Germany. Discover the old prison with many medieval instruments and devices of torture, creepy catacombs and an interesting church.

Castle Greifenstein is also the home of the German Bell Museum. You will find about 50 bells showing the development of bell pouring. Climb up the stairs to the big towers and enjoy a magnificent view of Greifenstein. (Castle Grafenstein is closed on Mondays, we will visit another castle instead).

C Heidelberg & Schwetzingen

In the morning visit romantic Heidelberg on this delightful tour from Frankfurt. Known as one of the most beautiful cities in Germany, Heidelberg lies on the River Neckar and it is an everlasting favorite among international tourists.

Explore of the world famous castle (partially in ruins) with its impressing Gothic and Renaissance buildings. We show you the large courtyard, the mighty terrace and one of the largest wine barrels in the world, the "Heidelberg Tun". Take a walk in the medieval town center and marvel at the Old Bridge, Karlstor, the Church of the Holy Spirit, House of the Knights with its precious Renaissance facade and small lanes with half-timbered houses. The city hosts the oldest university of Germany.

We continue our journey to the beautiful Palace of Schwetzingen. The precious building has once been the summer residence of the Palatinate Electors.

On our guided visit of the residence we will show you the rooms and halls with their original furniture from the 18th century. Even more famous: the fantastic gardens of the Residence, laid out in the French and English style - they are without equal in Europe.

IMPORTANT NOTE: Palace Schwetzingen is currently under construction. The estimated reopening is scheduled for July 2016. We can only take bookings on request. The reopening might change again.

E Würzburg / Wertheim Village Outlet

Würzburg, the former bishop's residence counts among the oldest and most beautiful cities of Germany. We will tour the precious Residence Palace, a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

World famous is also the magnificent staircase with the brilliant ceiling frescoes of the Venetian artist Tiepolo. The rooms and halls of the Residence display a unique baroque splendor.

On our tour through the city you will come to see the Old Bridge with its characteristic statues of the saints, and the Cathedral St. Kilian, the fourth largest Romanesque Church in Germany.

The mighty fortress Marienberg, which has been seat of the Prince Bishops for nearly 500 years hosts the Mainfränkisches Museum, one of the largest art collections in our country, including the famous sculptures of Tilman Riemenschneider.

Würzburg is well known as the center of Franconian wine and delicious Franconian cooking.

On our journey back to Frankfurt we will include an extensive shopping stop at "Wertheim Village", a famous outlet shopping area: world-leading brands with great savings.

NOTE: The Wertheim Village stores are closed on Sundays and public holidays.

F Wiesbaden & Mainz

Come with us to discover the city of hot spas and the invention of the printing press.

Our first destination is Wiesbaden, the capital of the state "Hessen" and a very famous spa with 26 hot springs.

Discover the very elegant city with its precious villas, historic buildings, famous promenades and the impressive Casino. Enjoy a ride up the "Neroberg" mountain in the oldest water ballast-driven cog-and-rack railway in Germany.

Be amazed by the panoramic view of the city from the top of the mountain and visit the famous Russian church, which has come to be known as the "Greek Chapel".

We will continue our journey and cross the river Rhine to Mainz, the old city with a 2000 years old heritage, dating back to the ancient Romans. Mainz is nowadays the capital of the state "Rhineland-Palatinate".

The fantastic baroque buildings remind on the times of the electors. We walk the old city center with roomy squares and crooked allies, half-timbered houses and baroque churches. We pass by the Gutenberg Museum – the inventor of the printing press. The guide will lead you to St. Stephan's to see the fantastic blue glass windows of Marc Chagall.

Our tour of Mainz ends with a visit of the 1000 years old, mighty St. Martin's cathedral.

H Day Tour to the River Moselle

Come with us to one of Germany's most attractive river valleys.

The Moselle flows through a cultural landscape that has been shaped by man for over 2000 years and we will visit the best part of it: the enchanting little towns of Cochem, Zell, Traben-Trarbach and Bernkastel.

Idyllic medieval villages line the banks of the meandering river, towered by many old castles and framed by forests and meadows. Terraced vineyards, some of them are the steepest in Europe. Take a rest and taste the famous wine from the valley in one of the traditional taverns.

Enjoy the unspoiled nature alternating with the lovely ambience of these villages with their carefully restored half-timbered houses, picturesque market squares, narrow streets, twisty alleys, medieval churches, abbeys and palaces. History and nature at every turn. Small group tours are ideal to discover the less known viewpoints and beauty of the valley. Be amazed and relax.

I Day Tour to Trier

TRIER at the river Moselle is a hidden treasure. Located amidst the charming river valley scenery this city offers many historic attractions, without being overcrowded by tourists.

During ancient Roman times, Trier was a province capital with 70 000 inhabitants.

Come with us to discover eight (!) UNESCO World Heritage Sites e.g.

See the best-preserved Roman town gate north the Alps "Porta Nigra", built around 180 AD, from sandstone blocks up to 6 tons. Marvel at the huge Basilica with the throne hall of the emperor Constantine and be impressed by the Imperial Baths and the Roman Amphitheater with a capacity of 20.000 seats, site of the cruel games between animals and gladiators.

You may also want to visit the Church of our Lady, which is the oldest Gothic church in our country or the famous Cathedral with its most precious relic: the Holy Robe, the tunic of Christ.

The Electoral Palace directly next to the Basilika is considered one of the most beautiful rococo palaces in the world.

Time for private strolls and a quiet break at the lovely banks of the river Moselle.

J Castle Hohenzollern

Take a full day trip to the Swabian mountains in the south of Germany - A scenic ride through typical German landscapes. Your guide will share all kind of interesting background history and stories on your way.

The CASTLE rises majestically on a mountain peak. It is the ancestral seat of this former family dynasty and attracts hundreds of thousands international visitors all year round.

The house of HOHENZOLLERN, one of the mightiest dynasties in Germany, looks back on a thousand years old tradition. Frederic the Great, King of Prussia, has been the most famous son.

Enjoy the extraordinary location of this imposing castle. Its bastions offer a breathtaking panorama over the countryside.

You will have enough private time to discover the mighty ramparts, the pathways, towers and the courtyard and take home impressing photos.

Are you up for freshly baked cakes and Swabian specialties? The castle restaurant and the beer garden can help.

The highlight of the day: An indoor visit to the splendid halls and rooms of the castle, with old paintings, precious porcelain, gold- and silver-smith works, historical garments and the Prussian King's Crown.

A memorable destination - never shown before in a daily tour program in Germany!

K Ludwigsburg Palace & Monastery Maulbronn

Never heard about it? Let yourself be impressed!

Follow us on a journey through time to a world of contrast: Baroque courtly splendor and medieval monastery life in Germany.

Ludwigsburg is a small, but very charming city with lovely and sound old buildings, colorful town houses and a fantastic marketplace.

A taste of German peaceful province, if there would not be the huge Palace one of the largest Baroque residences of Europe, over 300 years old, still in its original condition, impressive size (over 450 rooms) and sumptuous interior.

Enjoy the incredible splendor of a Royal Court during your inside tour through the palaces grand rooms.

So very close by and such a strong contrast: MONASTERY MAULBRONN (UNESCO WORLD HERITAGE SITE). One of Europe's most complete and best-preserved medieval monastery complexes: Superb architecture from Romanesque to Gothic. The buildings are enclosed by medieval walls and towers.

The entire complex, found in 1147, provides a perfect insight into the life and work of a monastic order in the Middle Ages.

Two outstanding German places - never shown before in a daily tour program in Germany!

L Ancient roman fort & Castle Ronneburg

(A memorable destination - never shown before in a daily tour program in Germany!!!)

1800 years history - at the doorstep of Frankfurt

Look forward to an entertaining and exciting trip to the ancient Romans and the world of a medieval castle - combined in a one day tour.

Let's start for a scenic ride through the Taunus lower mountain range. Visit to the UNESCO World Heritage Site, the LIMES and the Roman fort Saalburg, the frontier between the ancient Roman Empire and the Germanic tribes, the „barbarians“. Walk with your guide through the halls and rooms of this fascinating fortress and stroll along the ramparts and watchtowers. Plunge into the every day life of Roman soldiers, their families, merchants and craftsmen, nearly two thousand years ago.

At the Taberna they do serve authentic Roman food from Boleti Fungi to Pullum Parthicum. Bene sit tibi!

Enjoy history displayed in a very entertaining and lively way.

On we go to the foothills of the Vogelsberg mountain range: let's make a time jump of a 1000 years:

The medieval castle Ronneburg from the 13th century. Perfectly preserved, this mighty castle displays the living conditions of their inhabitants in the Middle Ages. The Ronneburg is an „open“ museum. You are allowed to explore the entire castle also on your own: the drawbridge, the gates, the towers and the armory, the halls and rooms, the kitchen and the well house - all visitors have unlimited access to the sunken world of the medieval knights and lords of such castles.

Christmas Market Tour

Share with us the best of German Christmas traditions:
